

Music – Gateway to the heart of things

An Exploration of the Relationship between Music and Christian Living

LS594

Rev Kevin Bates sm

21-24 July

Fr Kevin Bates sm is an ordained Marist priest and has lectured in Liturgy at the Catholic Theological Union at Hunters Hill in Sydney. In 1979 he began to record his music and has now published ten albums, the best known being Whispers, 1985. In 2007 he released Windows to the Sacred, exploring the metaphor of Sacrament.

The Seminar will include some input to give stimulus to conversation and reflection, time for reflection and creative writing, time for performance and presentation, all with a view to developing understanding and feeling for the ways in which music impacts on our journey together.
