

Starting a NEW CONVERSATION...

Unpacking and implementing Anointed and Sent: An Australian Vision for Catholic Youth Ministry.

Keynote address Malcolm Hart , Senior Youth Ministry Project Officer of the Australian Catholic Bishops Commission.

Wine, Cheese and Cafe style sharing in a new conversation about breaking open youth ministry in Australia.

7– 9pm Friday 30th October

58 Fernberg St. Paddington, Brisbane.

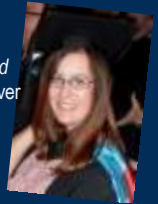

Keynote Speaker

Malcolm Hart has worked in professional Diocesan Youth Ministry for over 15 years. He is now employed by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference as Senior Youth Ministry Project to assist with the development of the Australian Catholic Youth Council and the follow up from World Youth Day 2008.

Other Speakers

Karen Lunney recently graduated with a Masters of Divinity. She was a key leader in developing Anointed and Sent with and for the Australian Bishops. With over 10 years experience as a diocesan co-ordinator, she now works with Sandhurst Diocese, and is a liaison person for BBI in developing a response to the youth ministry vision statement.

Dr Charlotte McCorquodale has served the Church since for 30 years as a parish and diocesan youth ministry leader. She currently serves as an international ministry consultant and trainer in the fields of e-learning, youth ministry, lay ministry formation, and ministry related research.

Michael Hart has served as a Youth Ministry Co-ordinator in Queensland for over 15 years. As well as dedication to developing young people in the church, he has a gift for process and procedure that lend a professional atmosphere to any project he embarks on. Michael is married with three children and lives and works in the Archdiocese of Brisbane.

Gabrielle Sinclair is currently the Youth Ministry Co-ordinator for the Bathurst Diocese. She has worked various roles in Youth Ministry for 8 years. Gabrielle was on the writing team for the National Vision for Youth Ministry and holds a Master of Arts in Theological Studies. Gabrielle is married with three beautiful children

Rachel Grahl After studying IT Rachel worked in management consulting before taking a sharp career turn to become the Youth Ministry Coordinator for the Diocese of Townsville from 2004 –2008. As a result she brings a unique perspective to the organisational aspects of working in youth ministry.

Dr Margaret Ghosn mshf has 12 years of youth ministry experience. She is Head of Pastoral Theology with BBI. She works extensively with secondary students along with parish commitments. She directs youth retreats and has compered a youth radio programme for years. Her Doctorate looked at the religious identity of young Maronite adults in Australia.

Broken Bay Institute

Share the... Hear the... Gather the... WISDOM

8.45am–2pm Saturday 31st October

A Saturday morning detailing aspects of the new youth ministry vision statement. Short presentations on the goals and focus areas by experienced youth ministry leaders, and then break open for discussion "What resources do we need in Australia to Unpack and Implement Anointed and Sent?" All sessions will be videotaped, and the presentation and discussion will form the basis for resource development and online courses by BBI. Morning Tea and Lunch Provided

Cost: $50 for both or $30 for Friday only

Rego PTO..

A project of The Broken Bay Institute with support of Bishop Joseph Grech, Bishop's Delegate for Youth.

Starting a NEW CONVERSATION...

Registration

Name:

Parish/Diocese/Movement:

Address:

Phone(s):

Email:

- Friday night only $30
- Friday and Saturday $50

Food allergies:

I understand that this event will be recorded (video and audio) and my input may be used in the development of future BBI resources

Signature _____

Date _____

Please make all cheques payable to: Broken Bay Institute

This is a non residential event.
Local accommodation options can be found on the internet.

Please post registration to: BBI Youth Ministry PO Box 340 Pennant Hills NSW 1715
Or fax to 02 9847 0031

For more information contact Karen Lunney 0408 526 883

BBI will be offering the recordings and outcomes of this gathering as an online course in early 2010. All participants will receive information and an invitation to participate, or invite others to join in the conversation!

Broken
Bay
Institute

