

Spirituality for Discipleship with Professor Anthony Gittins CSSp

from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago

29-30 April 2009

An unique opportunity to reflect on mission, spirituality and radical discipleship in the beautiful grounds of the Mount St Benedict Centre, Pennant Hills.

Anthony Gittins CSSp is Professor of Mission and Culture at the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He is an internationally recognised lecturer and retreat master.

Encountering Jesus – 29 April

Dr Gittins reflects on and draws from the Gospel encounters that Jesus had between women and men and what this means for us today as we grow into discipleship.

Called To Be Sent – 30 April

Dr Gittins explores what it means to be called into discipleship as our relationship with Christ demands that we enter more deeply into God's mission. What does this mean for us? Our family? Our Church?
